Kingston Estate Shiraz 2008 $11-$13

ALTHOUGH Kingston Estate's origins are in the South Australian Riverland, this likeable shiraz is a blend of grapes from the Mount Lofty Ranges and the Limestone Coast. Dark berry, lightly peppery, spice and balanced vanillin oak aromas prove inviting. The palate is medium in body, smooth and juicy, while very easy tannins sit beneath the surface. (14.5 per cent alcohol; screw cap)

Ageing? Drink over three years.

Food ideas Comed beef; lamb shanks.

Stockists include Village IGA, Middle Park; Grosvenor Hotel, St Kilda.
