Kingston Estate 2009 Petit Verdot, $14

This is one of the wines that won Donna Hartwig the Members' Choice prize in The Wine Society's recent 2010 Young Winemaker of the Year awards. It is fine value at $14 and is crimson with purple tints. Aromatic raspberry and bouquet garni scents show on the nose and the front of the palate has lifted ripe cherry flavour. Satsuma plum, licorice and black pepper fruit characters integrate with spicy oak on the middle palate and the finish has dusty tannins.
DRINK WITH: Pepperoni and eggplant pizza, spicy Italian sausages or deep-fried veal and olive meatballs.
AGEING: Four years.
